Airlie Oak

Bradley Creek Lawn
In Season Five of Dawson's Creek, Dawson visits his father's tombstone in a graveyard strategically placed by the set crew on this grassy knoll. The infamous Joey-Dawson dream wedding sequence was also filmed on this lawn in the dramatic season finale.

Bradley Creek
Natural brush-lined entrances to Bradley Creek appear in many rowboat sequences from Dawson's Creek. In Season One, filmed in 1998, characters Joey & Pacey experience a snail hunting adventure shot in this marsh-edged location.

Stables (no longer on-site)
Though no longer on-site, the Airlie Stables were the oldest structures remaining on the grounds from the time when the Jones family owned the property. The horse and carriage stables were the backdrop for scenes from Sandra Bullock's, 28 Days (2000); specifically when her character participates in horse-training therapy. The stables, along with the wooded areas, also stood as a backdrop location for the medieval comedy, Black Knight, starring Martin Lawrence. In 2011, filming took place for the ABC movie, A Cinderella Story: Once Upon A Song, starring Lucy Hale. Set developers built a replica of Cinderella's Cottage on the lawn next to the stables.

Spring Garden
Designed in the early 1900's, this garden peaks in the months of March & April, showcasing a variety of tulips, daffodils and azaleas. A dream sequence from One Tree Hill (TV Series, 2003-2012) was shot here. In this dream, Karen envisions a fantasy scenario with her lost love, Keith, along with their daughter, Lily, who is frolicking amongst the azaleas. Nicholas Sparks', The Choice (2016), also filmed in this garden. Scheduled to hit theaters in 2020, Words on Bathroom Walls will feature scenes shot in Airlie's Spring Garden.

Mount Lebanon Chapel
The cemetery here was used for scenes from Sleepy Hollow (TV Series, 2013-2017). The Chapel can also be seen in Nicholas Sparks', The Choice (2016).

Pergola Garden
This enchanting structure was added to Airlie in the early 1900s. It served as a popular location for many romantic scenes from the hit TV Series, Dawson's Creek. This stunning location also played the set for Lydia's funeral in the cult-hit Series, One Tree Hill. The movie, Well Wishes (2015), and the TV Series Sleepy Hollow have also filmed here.
EUE/Screen Gems

Wilmington, N.C., also known to film junkies as “Hollywood East”, is the home of EUE/Screen Gems Studios. Screen Gems is the largest domestic television and movie production facility outside of California. Since the studio’s opening in 1985, Wilmington has become a major center of American film and television production. Airlie Gardens is happy to add Screen Gems’ most popular productions to its already abounding history.
